WHEREAS, at the June 26, 2008 mediation in the above action, the parties reached a settlement agreement;

WHEREAS, by stipulated order (D.I. 41) the Court stayed this case until further order of the Court, in order to permit the parties time to prepare a written agreement memorializing the terms of their settlement, and further directed that if a stipulation of dismissal was not filed by August 15, 2008, then a joint status report should be submitted by no later than one week thereafter; and

WHEREAS, the parties have reached agreement on all terms of the settlement agreement, but find that they need additional time for final approval of those terms and finalizing and formally executing the written agreement memorializing their settlement; now therefore,
